

DAVID J. BERON, P.E.

200 OLD RIVER ROAD #19, LINCOLN, RHODE ISLAND 02865

EDUCATION

Lesley University

Master of Science Degree in Management, 2002

University of Rhode Island

Bachelor of Science Degree in Civil Engineering, 1987

- Member National Engineering Honor Society
- Member National Civil Engineering Honor Society

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

National Grid USA Service Company

Various Engineering Positions

1987 through Present

- Present position is Principal Engineer in the Transmission Line Engineering Department. Responsibilities include design, licensing, project management, coordination, budget development and administration, schedule development and execution, compliance with standards and policies, procurement of materials and services, management of contractors and consultants, and general administration of transmission line and multidisciplinary electric utility projects.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

- Registered Professional Engineer in the State of Rhode Island
- Presently pursuing Project Management Institute certification as a Project Management Professional

ADDITIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

- Excellent interpersonal and written communication skills
- Effective team-building and collaborative abilities.